Guard of Honor Roofing came to repair my roof Some unexpected issues came up and with my consent they immediately took care of everything....my entire roof had to be completely replaced....(I was expecting this; I knew it was in horrid conditions.) They were professional and courteous. They started early and stayed until job was completed....which was a few hours longer than they expected. Never heard one complaint from any of the workers....they kept going. They cleaned up so well that you couldn't tell they had even been here.... Mr John (owner) who now owns the company his dad started many many years ago and Ms Shannon (office) are 2 of the nicest; friendliest; considerate people you will ever have the pleasure of coming in contact with. Prior to choosing this company I had met and spoke with a various number of roofing companies and solo roofers over a period of 2 weeks before deciding. Guard of Honor checked all boxes and not once were there anyone who rose above the #1 spot they were holding. I cannot say enough good things about this company but I will close with this.....I am so glad I found them.... You need their service.....don't hesitate to call.....you will be so glad you did.....he has a crew who WANTS TO WORK FOR THE COMPANY and that's hard to find anywhere these days.... Mr. John came by once the crew was done and treated them all to an ice cream break....NOW THATS A FANTASTIC BOSS!!!! Guard of Honor will be the only company I use and I will recommend them to everyone I know... Have a BLESSED DAY and call Guard of Honor in Little River SC for your roof services!!

Guard of Honor Roofing is one of those companies who still remember the importance of customer service, integrity, professionalism, and a job well done every step of the way. We can unhesitatingly and without reservation, recommend them for all of your roofing needs. Shannon was extremely kind, helpful and patient with us and very prompt arranging John to look at the roof and suggest what could be done. There was no pressure, just the facts. A new roof was installed within a week in order to meet an insurance deadline. No payment was wanted until John came back to inspect the completed work to be sure it was done properly, and that we were satisfied. Who could ask for more? We couldn't be more pleased!

It was a pleasure doing business with Guard Of Honor Roofing. John and Shannon were very patient and helpful in selecting the color shingles we wanted, which was more difficult than normal I'm sure. Their roofing crew was amazing to watch. They were very professional, everyone knew their job well and worked smoothly as a team until the job was complete. I observed a great deal of the work and was very impressed. The roof turned out beautiful and is exactly how I hoped it would look. My experience with Guard of Honor has been nothing but excellent from start to finish. Not only did they do an excellent job but they also gave me the best price, which was exactly what they quoted, and the best warranty of any quoted. I highly recommend Guard of Honor Roofing to anyone needing a roof replaced. I believe you will be as pleased as I am.

The experience working with this company was professional, from the beginning to the end of the installation. When I called for an estimate they delivered the estimate the very next day. The pricing was fair and reasonable. They worked with me as far as scheduling to my convenience. When they arrived to do the work, the employees knew exactly what to do. They were very professional, and courteous. There was a full crew of 8-10. They all went about their jobs. They covered all of my landscaping, and siding. They made sure all areas were secured. The owner John arrived at the site, and went on the roof and was overseeing the work. He then introduced himself to me and explained the entire process, what they were doing and going to do to assure me the best products and results. At the end of the project, John then did a thorough walk through with me. He took the time to explain everything. The cost of the work was then well worth it. I felt as though I got everything I expected and more. John then followed up a few days later, to make sure everything was to my liking. I would recommend working with John and GUARD of HONOR ROOFING to anyone. YOU WILL NOT REGRET IT !!!!

A great company to do roofing. Really nice honest people to deal with. They are a company that answers phone calls or returns phone calls in a timely manner. They do what they say they will do and are on the job when they say they will be there. They cleanup all debris from around the house so nothing is left on the property. As far as we are concerned we are very happy we selected guard of honor roofing to replace the roof on our house and will recommend them to anyone needing a new roof.

My wife and I are very pleased that we hired Guard of Honor Roofing to perform the roof replacement on our home in Little River. We are extremely satisfied with how well they managed our roof replacement. Our new roof really does look amazing and it added immediate value and curb appeal. Their entire staff was professional and a delight to work with from the initial quoting process, answering our innumerable questions, the roof installation and cleanup and finally the billing and invoicing process. Their crew was at the job site from sunup until after sundown working diligently and professionally. The crew did a fantastic job cleaning up any materials left from the roof tear-off and new roof system installation. This included verifying there were no sharp objects such as nails left on the driveway or lawn. They were extremely prompt in responding to any and all questions that we had. They also provided samples of various roofing shingles to help in the decision process. Finally, as stated above, my wife and I highly recommend Guard of Honor Roofing for your roofing needs. Please feel free to reach out to me if you have any additional questions.
